

SKY TERRACE PENTHOUSE

This exclusive, 7,460-square-foot residence sits atop HALL Arts Residences with a quiet, refined architecture, soaring ceilings, and premium finishes and appliances, creating a convergence of the senses with its beauty and character.

Designed by the renowned Abeyta Architecture Studio and crafted by Allgood Pfannenstiel, the residence occupies the top of the 28-story HALL Arts Residences, where warm woods, sculptural forms, refined metals and tactile materials create spaces that feel sophisticated yet remarkably livable.

The interiors add another layer to the story. New York-based Neal Thomas Enterprises furnished the home, curating distinctive pieces that complement the architecture rather than compete with it.

The 2,330-square-foot outdoor terrace, designed by award-winning landscape architecture firm Hocker, serves as an oasis away from the bustle of city life, featuring a private pool, fire feature, and a trellis-covered seating area.
